

Ranjana Maitra

Country Head International- University of New Haven, West Haven, Connecticut, USA (former-TCS and Wipro) | Chairperson CII - Indian Women Network WR 2005-2006

Ranjana Maitra is a dynamic global leader, accomplished entrepreneur, and a seasoned executive with over three decades of experience building and scaling businesses in

The Healthcare and Life Sciences domains. With leadership at roles in the industry, global giants like Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) and Wipro, Ranjana has consistently delivered profitable, multiplier growth across global markets.

At Wipro, she served as General Manager & Global Head of the Life Sciences Digital Operations & Platforms Unit, where she successfully led global delivery centers, integrated acquired businesses, and created high-impact solutions that drove business transformation.

An MBA in Marketing and a proud alumna of the University of New Haven (Connecticut, USA, Class of 1991), Ranjana returned to India post-graduation to begin her journey in corporate India-TCS. In 2019, following a successful corporate tenure, she returned to her alma mater with a renewed purpose – to guide next-generation talent through meaningful international education. She currently serves as the Country Head – International for the University of New Haven, passionately helping students shape global careers through access to world-class education.

Ranjana is also a prominent voice in international education, with a focus on Southeast Asia and a strong commitment to promoting Women in STEM.

A recognized leader in industry forums, Ranjana currently serves as Chairperson of CII IWN Western Region (2025–2026), after holding key roles as Co-Chair (2022–2023) and Maharashtra Chairperson in the preceding year. She is part of CII's Western Region Taskforce on Education (2022–2026).

Ranjana is also an active member of the British Business Group for over two decades and contributes to the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce, where she continues to champion international collaboration, industry-academia partnerships, and women's leadership.

“Ranjana is currently the Chairperson of the CII Indian Women Network (Western Region) and a member of the Education Task Force, contributing to policy advocacy “

Please join us in welcoming Ranjana Maitra to the UNI Network Group
Advisory Board Member